ASCAP Songwriters Showcase

May 1, 2006
Kennedy Center
Washington, DC
7:45pm – 9:00 pm
Sold Out!

The special guest host of the ASCAP Songwriters Showcase in Washington, DC, will be Stephen Schwartz, the highly acclaimed composer and lyricist for such successful Broadway shows as Pippin, Godspell, and his newest smash hit, Wicked. This ASCAP event will present talented songwriters from the Mid-Atlantic region - including DC, Maryland, Virginia, Pennsylvania, and Delaware. Each songwriter (or their designated singer) will perform a song representing one of the following genres – musical theatre, jazz vocals, cabaret, or light pop.

This showcase will directly follow the 6:00 p.m. Kennedy Center's "Performance Plus" interview with Stephen Schwartz that will explore the world of one of the American theatre's most talented artists.

This event will highlight the growing songwriting talent base in this region and further establish Washington, DC as an emerging music market.
